

DIAGRAM OF NEW YORK'S NAVAL PARADE: VIEWS OF THE FLEET BY DAY AND NIGHT

Besides the Dutch, British, German, French and Italian warships that will be in the Hudson-Fulton parade at New York there will be fifty-two vessels of the United States navy. Among these are the Connecticut, Vermont, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Mississippi, Idaho, Georgia, New Jersey, Nebraska, Rhode Island, Virginia, Wisconsin, Maine, Missouri, Ohio, North Carolina, New York, Montana, Chester, Birmingham and Salem. There are to be two water parades on Sept. 25. These take place in the Hudson river from the Battery to Spuyten Duyvil. In the afternoon parade the Connecticut and the Half Moon will lead the greatest fleet of excursion and pleasure craft ever assembled in American waters. These vessels will encircle the battleships, and each of the seventy or more fighting machines will fire a salute to the Half Moon and Connecticut. At night the warships will be illuminated, and the pleasure boats will again encircle them. During this proceeding every search light in the international fleet will play upon the passing vessels, the Fallades and the city. The line of warships at anchor will be more than eight miles long.

STRATFORD

There was an interesting report in town yesterday that one of our popular barbers has married a well known and vivacious widow. The wedding was very quiet.

Mr. David McEwen, whose wife left him in a ship yesterday, has found steady employment.

Mrs. C. G. Gunther and Miss Ella Jackson went to New York on Thursday to witness the great Hudson-Fulton celebration.

A large delegation of members of the Neighborhood church plan to go to New York to see their pastor, Rev. Mr. Bullock, take the character of Robert Fulton on the Clermont.

Charles Payne and family, of Lordship Park, are in New York for a week on their way to their home in Kansas. Mr. Payne is a brother-in-law of Judge Beck.

Sheriff Stagg took a posse of men with him yesterday, and went to a place known as the "tramp's camp," near Avon Park, with the intention of rounding up its inmates. His search was fruitless for all the tramps had fled. They have become a nuisance to the people living on Hollister Heights where they beg for food and chase the children, frighten them.

About 100 new voters are to be made in town, and the selectmen will be in session until 7 o'clock this evening for the purpose of administering the oath.

Some unusually large cabbage heads and egg plants shown in local shop windows excite the curiosity of visitors from the rural districts.

Mrs. Joseph Hines has taken for her new name the cognomen of "Miss J. Beaumont."

Pistol shots have recently been heard on Warwick avenue, and there is a suspicion that a man was walking on the street. As far as known nothing has been sniped.

Our local baseball club is to give a dance on the 14th of October, at Red Men's hall.

Perhaps the most graceful actor on the stage during the "Widow Hunt," was Louis.

Next Monday evening the Rebekah Standard Comedy Troupe will rehearse a play they intend to produce before the public. Mrs. M. L. Beach of Long Brook avenue will throw open her house for the rehearsal.

Society people are asking why we cannot have the "Old Maid's Convention" repeated during the winter? It had quite a run last winter. A number of people are willing to be "transformed."

The Battle of the Dahlias will be fought at the Methodist church on the 28th inst.

The Red Men who went to Stamford last night had a rather stormy time of it. The rain came down in torrents.

It was a pretty wet night for the prohibitionists to be out last evening to hold a convocation, but they are not alarmed at cold water.

Food sales and harvest whists are being planned for next week.

Our local baseball team expects to go to Westport to-morrow.

To-morrow morning at the Congregational church Rev. Newton J. Jones will speak on Christian work in Porto Rico. The rally will take place at noon. Dr. Packard preaches in the evening.

Orange Democrats Have Strong Ticket

With Greene Kendrick for first selectman as backbone of the list of nominees a ticket considered by old timers as one of the best in years was nominated last night at the Orange Democratic caucus. "A good ticket all the way through," asserted Attorney Edwin S. Thomas, and many of those present expressed their confidence in the strength of the candidates nominated.
